

Barmouth beach, Wales

Stonehenge, England

Edinburgh Castle, Scotland

Houses of Parliament, England

Mark Allen's quite good
~~Great~~ Britain
FREE

Mark Allen's Quite Good Britain

utterly
FREE!

Laughing Horse @ Lindsay's

3:15pm (1 hour), 5-26 August 2006 (not 15 or 23)

Dear person

Did you know that in 2007, Great Britain will be exactly 300 years old? Well it is. The thing is, there are no official plans to celebrate the occasion and I feel mildly cheated by that. Maybe it's another sign of the current British identity crisis. Well if that's the case, I'm not having it.

So far, I've been willing to overlook the fact that our monarchy is German, our national motto is French and our national animal is from Africa - that's just quirky - but when the people of Britain are denied a legitimate excuse for a party, it's gone too far.

Before Great Britain enters its fourth century, maybe it's time to review the whole thing and sort out this identity crisis once and for all.

Join me for Mark Allen's Quite Good Britain - an hour of smashing, completely free mid-afternoon comedy. Then we can all look at the evidence and decide for ourselves - is Britain indeed still 'Great' or would 'Quite Good' be more appropriate?

Wish you were here and all that...

Mark

Laughing Horse @ Lindsay's
(The Upstairs Bar)
15, Brunswick Street
Box office: 0131 556 8974
www.freefringe.com

Laughing Horse @
LINDSAY'S
Venue 56

